

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Haselwander Companies wins Builder of the Year for Chippewa County.

Eau Claire, WI May 13, 2011 ---The Chippewa County Economic Development Corporation and the Chippewa Valley Home Builders Association, has honored Haselwander Companies, Inc. of Eau Claire, WI with Home Builder of the Year for 2011. Receiving the award at the CCEDC 2011 Annual Meeting in Chippewa was Greg Haselwander and Neil Haselwander, the owners of Haselwander Companies.

“This honor represents an extraordinary achievement in home building and economic development activity in Chippewa County,” said Charlie Walker, President and CEO of CCEDC. Charlie Walker praised the company’s initiatives in pro-active real estate development and home building that continue to employ businesses and people that are tied to and benefit from business activity in the home building industry.

“We are truly estatic to receive this excellent recognition from the Chippewa County Economic Development Corp and the Chippewa Valley Home Builders Association,” Owner and Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Greg Haselwander said. “This achievement recognizes the commitment and dedication of our entire team at Haselwander Companies.”

The company was honored during award ceremonies at the CCEDC 2011 Annual Meeting on May 13, 2011 at 29 Pines Convention Center in Chippewa County.

Haselwander Companies, Inc. is owned by Greg Haselwander and Neil Haselwander, an Eau Claire, WI based home building and real estate development company. Haselwander Companies, Inc. has been building single family W g h c a homes, condominiums and rental housing since 1965, in Eau Claire, Chippewa and Dunn Counties and currently employees 53 people.